Take a look around the world
And tell me what you see
Though it seems far away
Expect a change for you and me

For years we lived in fear
But soon the day is here
The point of no return lies far beyond
Be aware the end is near

Signs of the end
Signs of the end
Signs of the end
Signs of the end

Signs of the end
Signs of the end
Signs of the end
Signs of the end

I know the times approach
When men will drown in vanity
These things and so much more
Are testified by history

They're stumbling straight ahead
Into lurking certain death
I hear the tolling of the judgement bell
The sky is turning red

Signs of the end
Signs of the end
Signs of the end
Signs of the end

Signs of the end
Signs of the end
Signs of the end
Signs of the end

Holding on till it's done
Resist temptation is the key

To escape the threatening clutches
Of this misery

Don't be afraid of coming times
Just watch out for the signs
And be prepared to take your stand
Against slander, hate and crimes

Signs of the end
Signs of the end
Signs of the end
Signs of the end

Signs of the end
Signs of the end
Signs of the end
Signs of the end

Signs of the end
Signs of the end
Signs of the end
Signs of the end

Signs of the end
Signs of the end
Signs of the end
Signs of the end
