There can be no hope in your heart
Spectre of death at your heels
Hear now, he calls to you
"Let me take your life and you'll never die"
There is no reason to fear
I will not harm you my dear
"Open your mind to me
I command you now into the night"
Beware the dead of night
Run for your life
Dark shadows in the night
Run for your life
Why do you search for the light
Hear now the Prince of the Night
"Come to me now and don't anger me
And I'll give you life"
Beware the dead of night
Run for your life
Dark shadows in the night
Run for your life
"Feel now the power that I give Seduction of death I can give
Your worthless life gives you
Nothing but despair, now pay my price!"
Beware the dead of night
Run for your life
Dark shadows in the night
Run for your life
