Tell us your story
we'll sit down and tune in to watch you bleed It may take away our pain for an hour but it's what everybody, everybody needs, yeah you open all the doors and windows, you let everybody in you air your dirty laundry yeah

Well, how long before, we've come to far to make sense of the world we're living in well we stay hypnotized and mesmerized despite of the mess we're drifting in yeah we never missed it when the circus came to town nothing's changed we're still the same misery likes company

So get a close-up, wanna see those tears falling makes us feel high and proud and we can bare our lonely lives

And you get drunk on the applause of strangers you tell us all of you're secrets and wagers as if tv were your God

Well how long before we've come to far to make sense of the world we're living in...

It's midday on mars,
Is anybody questioning how lost we are here?
Before we go to far, there's got to be some sense made of the world we're living in

It's midday on mars!;
