I find myself thinking about what you do
Though I know, Iâ€™m better off without you
I never break down any longer
I donâ€™t know why I can't move on

I really need, I really want you to bring me down
Yeah, I miss that mess you make
Come around, for old times sake
I need a sweet taste of bitter, bring me down

I'm looking back, I see I was unhappy
To do-do it again, yeah, that would be crazy
It's so calm and quiet without you
I gotta admit that I long for you

I really need, I really want you to bring me down
Yeah, I miss that mess you make
Come around, for old times sake
I need a sweet taste of bitter, yeah

You're the river I'll be drowning in some day
I'll take my chances anyway

Bring me down
Yeah, I miss that mess you make
Come around, for old times sake
I need a sweet taste of bitter

Bring me down
Yeah, I miss that mess you make
Come around, for old times sake
I need a sweet sweet taste of bitter

Bring me down
Yeah, I miss that mess you make
Come around, for old times sake
I need a sweet taste of bitter, bring me down
Bring me down
