I hung on every word you said and
No one could get inside my head like you...then

I guess I was a fool for you...then

But now I understand

It was all part of your plan

And you should know that

You taught me what it was

To feel the sting of love

To feel like I don't ever wanna let somebody ever get that close to me again

I learned so much from you

Things I'd never do

Now that we're apart

You taught me how to break a heart

Dear God if you can hear me now

please stop the anger building up inside me

I need you to come and guide me

I look into the eyes

Of the one I thought was mine

And all I scream is

You taught me what it was

To feel the sting of love

To feel like I don't ever wanna let somebody ever get that close to me again

I learned so much from you

Things I'd never do

Now that we're apart

You taught me how to break a heart

No one could get inside my head

You taught me what it was

To feel the sting of love

To feel like I don't ever wanna let somebody ever get that close to me again

I learned so much from you

Things I'd never do
Now that we're apart

You taught me what it was
To feel the sting of love
To feel like I don't ever wanna let somebody ever get that close to me again
I learned so much from you
Things I'd never do
Now that we're apart

You taught me how to break a heart
