Memories frozen in a picture frame
Days go on things will never be the same, anymore
Thoughts of you and the life we never lived
How can I pull through, when you left to soon

[Chorus]

I believe, A part of you will always stay with me
I can feel the images of you will never fade away
I can't move on, pretending everything's gonna be the way it was
Why can't you hear me, I am inconsolable

I wish I'd known you better, time was running out
The guilt I'm left with is more than I can describe
And I keep on calling your name to feel that I'm alive
In this empty space, you could never be replaced

[Chorus]

I believe, A part of you will always stay with me
I can feel the images of you will never fade away
I can't move on, pretending everything's gonna be the
way it was
Why can't you see me, when I'm inconsolable

Everyday I try to carry on, everyday I try to find a meaning
Living in a place where I belong, as cold as can be
If I could take you back to yesterday,
But not forever gone it's inconceivable
It almost unacceptable

Memories frozen in a picture frame
How can I pull through, when you left to soon?

I can't go on, pretending everything could be the way it was
Why can't you see me, when I'm inconsolable

A part of you will always stay with me
I can feel the images of you will never fade away
I can't go on, pretending everything's gonna be the way it was

Why can't you see me, when I'm inconsolable
