Day after day
I think about you and say
Why don't you notice me
Cause I've been watchin you
I've been watchin you

I write you letters all day
And then I throw them away
Cause I don't know what to say
Cause I've been watchin you
I've been watchin you

Cause I'm alone in this world
And I'm in love with you, girl
Can't you see
Wont you please notice me

I call you at home
And then I hang up the phone
Before you know that it's me
Cause I've been watchin you
I've been watchin you

I can't take it no more
I'm gonna knock on your door
Say, Why wont you notice me
Cause I've been watchin you
I've been watchin you

Cause I'm alone in this world
And I'm in love with you, girl
Can't you see
Wont you please notice me, ooh

Cause I'm alone in this world
And I'm in love with you, girl
Can't you see
Wont you please notice me

I can't take no more
No more
Girl, no more

No more

Cause I'm alone in this world
And I'm in love with you, girl
Can't you see
Wont you please notice me

Cause I'm alone in this world
And I'm in love with you, girl
Can't you see
Wont you please notice me

Now baby, don't you see that I love you
Yeah, I love you
Whoa, can't you see

Oh, oh, yeah, yeah
Ooh... ooh... ooh... ooh... ooh...
No, no, yeah
Now ooh... ooh... ooh... ooh... ooh...
I love you so and I said
Now ooh... ooh... ooh... ooh... ooh...
Notice me
