We needed to walk back, I felt like all my world collapsed
You took me a whole year to get here
To start from from running back
Cause I know
How I felt about you
You know
I was wrapped around you.
I can't lie, I won't try
I'm right back but I'm the wrong track

You're shaking it hard, I feel this house of cards, it's all
in all collapsed
It's like I'm a theme for all the dreams we had and now I'm just collapsed
You're taking me back like a time machine
You make me collapse pushing buttons on me
And now I fall again, I guess you'll win
My heart this house of cards will just collapse
Collapse, Collapse
My heart will just collapse
Collapse, Collapse
My heart will just...

Then there was a rebound that I felt
The second we were through
In the mall I was at him, you sunken that's he's a clone of you
Cause I know
Wasn't really over
You know
Can't forget about you that easy
Believe me, cause breaking up is so hard to do

You're shaking it hard, I feel this house of cards, it's all
in all collapsed
It's like I'm a theme for all
the dreams we had and now I'm just collapsed
You're taking me back like a time machine
You make me collapse pushing buttons on me
And now I fall again, I guess you'll win
My heart this house of cards will just collapse

Collapse, Collapse
My heart will just collapse
Collapse, Collapse
My heart will just...

I'm never gonna be without you babe.
You're making me collapse and acting crazy
I'm never gonna be without you, without you
And everything I built to like to show the truth

You're shaking it hard, I feel this house of cards, it's all
in all collapsed
It's like I'm a theme for all
the dreams we had and now I'm just collapsed
You're taking me back like a time machine
You make me collapse pushing buttons on me
And now I fall again, I guess you'll win
My heart this house of cards will just collapse
Collapse, Collapse
My heart will just collapse
Collapse, Collapse
My heart will just...

Collapse, Collapse, Collapse
My heart will just collapse, collapse, collapse
My heart will just...(x3)
