ur so confused
wen u kno theres really no one there who understands ur on ur own an ur happiness is bleeding thru an open wound u cant control wat goes on inside this hell that we call life u lost urself in everything, everything u cant find

but its ok jus to b urself jus as long as its alrite with u ur world has changed to tha point where u dnt seem to quite fit in everyone seems so happy then theres u

all alone with no one there to take ur side and tha lies hav taken every last breath out of ur life but its ok just to b urself just as long as its alrite with u yea with u yea

so u fly... away from all tha hate inside ur mind and u try... to find a place where u feel loved somehow yea

as long as its alrite with u
yea with u yea
with u
