I'm gonn be something, I set my heart and my mind
Won't catch me off of my grind
You know I'm someone, it's just a matter of time
And they'll be screaming my name
They'll have it spelled out in lights, aw

I was born to entertain ya, yeah, yeah, yeah
I know this space will make me famous, yeah, yeah, yeah
I'll keep it moving sing come with me, yeah, yeah, yeah
I'm on a road so don't you get in my way
I want it know I take it, cause I know what my faith is
So they can go ahead and just try
I've done too much waited, and I'm done being patient
I'm walking into my spotlight

[Chorus]

One step away, from all of my dreams
From what I believe, from what I will be
One step away, from turning this up
From being the one you see on tv
One step away, from taking this life
And making it mine, I promise you'll see
One step away, from where I fit in
And taking this win, cause this is my scene

I can't wait for tomorrow, watch me live it right now
Live it right now, live it, live it right now
I can't wait for tomorrow, watch me live it right now
Live it right now, live it, live it right now

The top is calling me, I know it, yeah, yeah, yeah
Just like the starry night I'm glowing, glowing
When I get finished here you'll know my name, yeah, yeah, yeah
Tell everyone I'm taking over this game
I want it know I take it, cause I know what my faith is

So they can go ahead and just try
I've done too much waited, and I'm done being patient
I'm walking into my spotlight

[Chorus]

One step away, from all of my dreams
From what I believe, from what I will be
One step away, from turning this up
From being the one you see on tv
One step away, from taking this life
And making it mine, I promise you'll see
One step away, from where I fit in
And taking this win, cause this is my scene

I can't wait for tomorrow, watch me live it right now
Live it right now, live it, live it right now
I can't wait for tomorrow, watch me live it right now
Live it right now, live it, live it right now

Feel the lights, the heat, yeah I know I'm ready
The stage was made for me so you know I get it
I'm gonna take my dreams and make them come through
And nobody stopping me

[Chorus]

One step away, from all of my dreams
From what I believe, from what I will be
One step away, from turning this up
From being the one you see on tv
One step away, from taking this life
And making it mine, I promise you'll see
One step away, from where I fit in
And taking this win, cause this is my scene

I can't wait for tomorrow, watch me live it right now
Live it right now, live it, live it right now
I can't wait for tomorrow, watch me live it right now
Live it right now, live it, live it right now.
