I've done some thinking
It's quite a lot since you left
But still I know nothing
That can release me from this
Sweet sense of longing
No one to fill in that space
But I'll tell you embrace

If I called you would you be there?
If I tried to, would you still care?

It's a long road when you're all on your own
It's a slow world
Getting through the day without
Somebody to hold
Since you left I don't know
What it's like anymore
Having someone to adore
Somebody to love

Did I desert you?
Or did I keep you too near?
I didn't mean to hurt you
Oh 'cause I still want you here

If I called you would you be there?
If I tried to, would you still care?

It's a long road when you're all on your own
It's a slow world
Getting through the day without
Somebody to hold
Since you left I don't know
What it's like anymore
Having someone to adore
Somebody to love

Someone who'll hold my hand
Someone who'll take a stand
Someone who'll let me know
That I'll never, ever, be alone

It's a long road when you're all on your own
It's a slow world
Getting through the day without
Somebody to hold
Since you left I don't know
What it's like anymore
Having someone to adore
Somebody to love
