she spreads herself wide open to let the insects in she leaves a trail of honey to show me where she's been
she has the blood of reptile just underneath her skin seeds from a thousand others drip down from within

oh my beautiful liar
oh my precious whore
my disease my infection
I am so impure

give it

devils speak of the way in which she'll manifest angels bleed from the tainted touch of my caress need to contaminate to alleviate this loneliness I now know the depths I reach are limitless

my disease my infection
I am so impure

oh

oh

oh my beautiful liar
my disease my infection
I am so impure
oh my beautiful liar
my disease my infection
I am so impure
