did you happen to catch
or did it happen so fast what you thought would always last has passed you by
is everthing speeding up or am I slowing down I'm spinning around
and I don't know why
all the pieces don't fit though I didn't really give a shit I never wanted to be like you but for all I aspire I am really a liar
and I'm running out of things I can do

I'd like to stay
but everyday
everthing pushes me farther away
if you could show
help me to know
how it's supposed to be where did it go?

pleading and
needing and
bleeding and
breeding and
feeding
exceeding
where is everybody?
trying and
lying defying
denying crying and
dying
where is everybody?

well ok, enough.
you've had your fun
hasn't yet become

so numb
and succumb
and
god damn I am so tired of pretending wishing I was ending when all I'm really doing is trying to hide and keep it inside
fill it with lies
open my eyes?
maybe I wish I could try

breeding
exceeding
where is everybody?
lying
where is everybody?

pleading
feeding
bleeding
breeding
exceeding
where is everybody?
trying
lying
defying
dying
where is everybody?
