Beyond the plans, where the chaos reigns
We brood beneath the stars while ages past.
Revel in the ancient spheres, where no life dwells
Captured by the sacred songs and spells of the Witch
!!!!!!

The wind of the vortex, that swirls amongst the stars
Will guide our path, from the ultimate void
Unseen and loathsome we descend to strike forth
We lie in wait, till the stars stand right, to come .....
Arisen, in Blasphemy, oh Lord, of hell Hear the howl of the serpent, whose roaring fills the sky

Sleeping, (in) awaiting, dead, but dreaming
The legions of the horned, will rise up from their slumber

Never, scorn, to wear, the horns
Our servants do homage, celebrate the arrival
Treasures of darkness, treasures of night
Open the gate, that I can feel your might Conquering, what, once, was

We are tryin' to take control, we are tryin to take them all

The choir, of the damned, whispers, hunting requiems
We summon the storm, that annihilates the land
We choose, to live, our life, in Blasphemy Darkness shall be eternal, when all shall bow (be)for(e) our throne !!!!!!!
