"Ode To The Horned Majesty"

Visit "Ode To The Horned Majesty" on MotoLyrics.com

Darkness my mate I still wander , (under) your perfect shelter

At shores of night I raise my wings and praise the divine

Extinct is the light , that extinct the night

It now seems like , the dark is calling

Bearer of mortality , bringer of delight

Let me taste the essence , of your delicious wine

We live by our desires , in the pagan way

We come to cleanse this world , with everlasting fire

We leave the treshold , (to) your realm behind

We enter the regal world , so splendorous and wide

Toward the gates , we march on

To complete our reign , with the throne of stone
