I'm long gone (I'm no god), but I'll let you through
You may decide it's not that good
I'm long gone, but I'll let you free
You may decide on stopping me
I'm long gone, but I'll let you through
You may decide it's nothing new
I'm long gone, but I'll let you through
You may decide there's nothing there

Born In A Junkyard (What isn't your god)
Gone

I'm long gone, but I'll let you through
You may decide it's nothing new
I'm long gone, but I'll let you leave
You may decide it's not for me
I'm long gone, but I'll let you through
You may decide it's nothing new
I'm long gone, but I'll let you leave
You may decide on stopping me
