Never had trouble sleepin'
Always had someone next to me
Nights I won't remember
I fooled around til the fool was me

Never thought much about you
On and off like a well worn shoe
Now I worry where you're walkin'
I guess the shoe's on another foot

Ohoh a little more pain and I'll know it
A little more hurt, I'll know it's love
Over and over til it's over
Drives me crazy, it must be love

Lately I'm hearin' rumors
You've been makin' serious plans
Should I have held you when I had you
Right here in the palm of my hand

Chorus

This much heartache, it must be love

Ohoh a little more pain and I'll know it
A little more hurt, I'll know it's love
Over and over til it's over
Drives me crazy
A little more pain and I'll know it
A little more hurt and I'll know it's love
Over and over til it's over
Drives me crazy, drives me crazy

This much heartache, it must be love

Must be love, it must be love
Oh it must be love, must be love
It must be love, must be love
It must be love, oh it must be love
Must be love, oh it must be love
