(Nits)

He is counting all my footsteps

I am looking at my watch

Night Fall

See him walk

The somnambulist

He is counting all the trees

Night Fall

In the ponds and in the ditches

He is counting all

The ducks and swans

Night Fall

Whistle bird in the window

Lightbulb and the rising moon

Night Fall

It's the watch on the thin wrist

Of the somnambulist who walks

Night Fall

Night falls

Moon in heaven

He is dreaming of a park

Night Fall
