The 'Darling' Stone
The wind is turning. A fire is burning, somewhere far away
Where are we going. To Hietaniemi Hautausmaa
It's a perfect grey graveyard day
Will I be saved when I call your name Stranger, you're so late. Between the rich men and the soldiers
'Rest in peace', that's what they told us
I only want your life, your life, your life
We could not find it, the 'darling' stone
It simply disappeared beneath the leaves that were falling
I can hear your calling
Stranger, why I'm so alone
Soon I'll be gone with a suitcase in an airplane Back into my life. Your life, your life
Where are you going, my sleepless darling
Back into your life, your life
