You were a tiny spark caught in your parents eyes and when they made love in the dark well you were a big surprise and the old man came through gave his very best for you and your mothers arms t Ept you warm like no other arms can do til the light of the day was as bright as it seems and you knew in your heart you were living the rest I had a dream of you but I never realized that baby Ream was true until you opened my eyes and I will come through give my very best for you and your loving arms will keep me warm cause no other arms will do when you can't find the light and we k N our hearts we're living the rest of the dream now I see a tiny spark caught in your loving eyes as we make love in the dark and dream of the big surprise and the old man will come through son Ughter just for you and your mama's arms will keep you warm like no other arms can do when you can't find the light at the top of the stairs when you cry in the night well you know we'll be there The light of the day is as b Right as it seems repeat chorus
