"Til The Fire Burns Out"

There's a home fire in your eyes that's burns me gently
There's a warmth that I've never known before
In your arms I hear a whisper of forever
This is all I ask and nothing more

When the nights are turning cold
If the fire is burning low
Say that you won't go
Til the fire's burned out
Don't let the fire burn out

Baby hold me now like there's no tomorrow
The fire's lit, the flame is burning true
I know we could swim the sea of sorrow
As long as there's one spark to see us through

So when the nights are turning cold
If the fire is burning low
Say that you won't go
Til the fire's burned out
Don't let the fire burn out
Don't let the fire burn out

So many empty nights
So many broken dreams
Too many lovers lost
In the lonely crowd

So when the nights are turning cold
If the fire is burning low
Say that you won't go
Promise you won't go
Say that you won't go
Til the fire's burned out
Don't let the fire burn out
Don't let the fire burn out
Don't let the fire burn out
Oh let it burn
Let it burn, let it burn
Don't let the fire burn out
Oh let it burn

Don't let the fire burn out
Let it burn, let it burn
Don't let the fire burn out
