Stuck in a rut that I can't get out of. Digging myself deeper everyday. Problems just keep on coming. (There) seems to be no end in sight. I've given all that I can give. There is nothing left. What else do you want? I can only deal with so much. I can't take anymore. What else do you want? One problem leads to another. Things never pan out the way they're supposed to. So many things I'd rather not deal with. I've got to learn to take things as they come. I've given all, that I can give. There is nothing left. What else do you want? I can only deal with so much. I can't take anymore. What else do you want from me? I think I'm getting ahead, but actually I'm falling further behind. I just can't seem to make ground, just watching everyone pass me by. (I feel I'm) being pulled in every direction. What the fuck do you want from me? I wish everyone would leave me alone. Just get the fuck off my back. No time to do the things I want. No time for myself. Tired of trying to make everyone happy. Tired of living for everyone else.
