Daddy didn't lock it so you found your favourite toy
You got power burning in your hand you naughty little boy
So then something deep
Inside you doesn't know that it's for real
You wanna lite up the show so now we know the way you feel
You breakdown
Breakdown
Who will save you
When we only wanna blame you
We're gonna breakdown
We're gonna break
Trenchcoat invades the day and blows us all away
Immitation all around you wanna play the game
So then you break down the walls around the demons in your head
And then you let 'em run around the world and swallow you instead Breakdown
Breakdown
Who will save you
When we only wanna blame you
Cause you take what's all around you
And then we wonder why
Why you are the way you are just take a look around
We're gonna breakdown
Who will save you
When we only wanna blame you
Cause you take what's all around you
And then we wonder why
Why you are the way you are just take a Look around
We're gonna breakdown
We're gonna break
We're gona breakdown
We're gonna break
