His accent serenades me
And presses at the door
Broken promise to be
Around for my mind war

And my accomplishment's interrogating me
Today's become tomorrow
Before I wanted it to be
And desperate discussions
The start of the destruction

Our sign, in my mind
I'll be fine
I'll be fine

'cause I'm under construction everyone
So you'll have to mind the mess
I'm under some construction

I always had to try harder
I never really could keep up
Sitting in the corner
With my illness and bad luck

But in this humble place I'm feeling like red wine
And I hope to get better
With some time
I'll be fine
With some time
I'll be fine

'cause I'm under construction everyone
So you'll have to mind the mess
I'm under some construction

Confection
Modification
Motivation
Of construction

And the rituals that soothe

And disgust me will be gone
With some time
I'll be fine
With some time
I'll be fine
I'll be fine

I'm under construction everyone
So you'll have to mind the mess
I'm under some construction

I'm under construction everyone
So you'll have to mind the mess
I'm under some construction

Under construction
Construction
Feel better with some construction
