I'm hanging out with me
And you're a vacant chair
A chosen compromise
This space we rarely share
And if you lived here you'd be home now

So what you givin' up from me?
And what shall I give up for you?
Aimless expectations passing by
If you lived here you'd be home now
If you lived here you'd be home now

And to make it real
I need to have you here
I need to have you
I need to hold you

Barren wasted heart, neglect of normalcy
And if you lived here you'd be home now
Oh if you lived here you'd be home now

And to make it real
I need to have you here
I need to have you
It can't be sincere
Unless you spend time here
I need to see you

A supervision is what I need
Some consistence and tangibility
Some casual light days
Part of the furniture
I want to take you for granted
And see you regular

So what you givin' up for me?
What shall I give up for you?
The separations tied, it's been too long

And to make it real
I need to have you here
I need to have you

It can't be sincere
Unless you spend time here
I need to see you
I need you, I need you
I need you, I need you

If you lived here
If you lived here
If you lived here
Come home now
