Mind my own business
I'm on my journey
And I have enough old friends
To keep me company

To say, "Hey, what's up?"
You want to hook up
You wanna hang out with me
Kick back, relax, feel happy an' lazy

You sent to me, one time
You come to me, two times
Why me? A three times
Abracadabra, now I've got a new friend

Let me introduce you to my new friend
Whoa, I got a new friend
Let me introduce you to my new friend
Whoa, I got a new friend

Mind my own business
I'm on my journey

Eye against eye on my journey
We're happily interrupted, extremes are extremes
I'm with my brand new friend, we test the boundaries
Like a little kittie's whiskers, cautiously

Experimental expression an' downward looks
You come an' sniff around, I'm not sure what to do
Like a big explosion, magically you look at me
I think I might have found a new friend

Let me introduce you to my new friend
Whoa, I got a new friend
Let me introduce you to my new friend
Whoa, I got a new friend

Let me introduce you to my new friend
Whoa, I got a new friend
Let me introduce you to my new friend
Whoa, I got a new friend

No don't [Incomprehensible] style
[Incomprehensible]

Mind my own business
I'm on my journey, ah, shit
Mind my own business
I'm on my journey, ah, shit

You sent to me, one time
You come to me, two times
Why me? A three times
Oh, serial monogamy, I've got a new friend

Let me introduce you to my new friend
Whoa, I got a new friend
Let me introduce you to my new friend
Whoa, I got a new friend

Let me introduce you to my new friend
Whoa, I got a new friend
Let me introduce you to my new friend
Whoa, I got a new friend

Let me introduce you to my new friend
Whoa, I got a new friend
Let me introduce you to my new friend
Whoa, I got a new friend

Mind my own business
I'm on my journey
An' I have enough old friends
To keep me company

But you say, "Hey, what's up?"
You want to hook up
You wanna hang out with me
An' to kick back, relax, feel happy an' lazy

In my head, it's only in my head
In my head, it's only in my head
In my head, it's only in my, only in my head
In my head, it's only in my head

Only in my head, only in my head
Only in my head, only in my head
In my head, it's only in my head
It's in my head, it's only in my head

In my head, it's only in my head

In my head
