

Criss Angel "Deadlove Calling"

Visit "Deadlove Calling" on MotoLyrics.com

Lost souls seek for a way
To spend eternity together
One half chosen to stay
From the mirror of forever

Time can't seem to erase
The lonely desperation
Just a million faces

It's all about you
It's all about me
It's all about oneness
Eternally
Don't you hear me calling you (deadlove)
Deadlove calling me
Don't you hear me calling you?

Living life as a lie
Camouflage reality
Visions through blinded eyes
Where no one else can ever be
Yesterday was alive (I'm alive)
Reflections of a fantasy
The only face i want to see.....

I can't leave me
I can't leave you
I can't leave this
Alone
