

No Harm Done "Sign Your Life Away"

We run from the light and we hide in the shadows
Born to destroy the lives we kept in the shallows
You can't understand unless you want to
Our vision is blinded with little hope of pulling through
The people in this world are all so ignorant
We live fake lives and it makes me sick
Give it up and you will see
Dive to the shallows and set it free

Everyone in this worlds so ignorant
It really makes me sick
Give it up and you'll see
Everyone in this worlds so ignorant
It really makes me sick
Give it up and you'll see

Walk with your eyes closed to get the real night mare
You second guessed your self when you didn't know what was out there
Run the race you've entered in cause it's a battle you'll never win
Sign your name and sign your life away
You can't find it behind the iron gate
Is it nice to know that you might not wake up tomorrow

Everyone in this worlds so ignorant
It really makes me sick
Give it up and you'll see
Everyone in this worlds so ignorant
It really makes me sick
Give it up and you'll see

When your lying on your death bed
Think of all the prayers that are soon to be said
Think about all the chances you had to set it right
We run from the light and we hide in the shadows
Destroy the lives we keep in the shallows Hurry up it's not to late, save yourself from internal hate

Everyone in this worlds so ignorant
It really makes me sick

Give it up and you'll see
Everyone in this worlds so ignorant
It really makes me sick
Give it up and you'll see
