I'm so sick of building walls
Only to be torn down
Only to be forgotten
We can't believe in what we see
We can't believe in anything

I'm throwing bricks from downtown rooftops
Why must the relentless
Keep coming incomplete?
I'm throwing bricks from downtown rooftops
Only to find that I'm alone

Midnight can't sleep again
Nothing makes sense to me
Sound the alarms
These walls are closing in
I'm losing faith
I can't find anymore space

Everything I know
Everything I love
Just comes and goes
