you reached for me from behind your screen making me feel wanted building up my hopes and my trust making me wait for a chance to hold you through lies and pain i wait and wait to touch your lips and hold your hand, just to run my fingers through your hair i gave you everything just for you to throw it away we were nothing but lies i am a fool to have fallen this far in a grave of dishonesty and heartache i wish, i wish you never reached for me from behind your screen
