I don't wanna go
Don't want to waste this time
I just want to stay with you
And let the time fly by
Can I ask for more?
A little more for me
I'm going to need it for
The time that I will be away
And I've forgotten everything
Thinking more importantly
Because
I don't want to go
I want to stay home with you
So much for this time apart
And I wish we could go back
To how things used to be before
What's the mileage now?
A steady pace I see, because there's a part of me
That hasn't been there for a while
And I am hollow... I am bare
But I'll keep going with despair
Because I just want to go
I want to come home to you
And I lost touch with myself
And I'm sorry
I hope we can work it out somehow again
Never thought I would feel this hollow
Never thought that the worst would follow
Never wanted to see this side of me
I never wanted it to be
