I realize that everywhere I go people think it's a fashion show A party they see a cool place to be to show off their masculinity I make sure that I look my best wear my clothes to show off my chest then the others will finally see what a cool person I must be gonna get myself real high gonna find me a real rad guy I'll get at least three chicks tonight then I'll look cool when I win this fight what a fun time they must have claiming generation x well if you ask me I don't know it all looks like a fashion show
