Wake me up at 4 in the morning, I wanna see the sun
come up.
I know you don't really care but it's something I've been dreaming of.
Get me out of this bed, take those needles out of me.
Wake me up at 4 in the morning, I wanna see the sun
come up.

I don't wanna pretend nothing's wrong anymore
Listen close...

I won't recover from this, fake a smile and tell me it's
the end.
You want to leave while I still breathe so go on, I'll try
and understand.

Remember all the things we planned out, all the kids
and the house we shared.
It fades away if I can't be there, hold my hand now I'm getting scared.
Thoughts of you, through my mind spinning around,
and again.
Remember all the things we planned out, all the kids
and the house we shared.

I don't wanna pretend nothing's wrong anymore
I'll say to you...

I won't recover from this, fake a smile and tell me it's
the end.
You want to leave while I still breathe so go on, I'll try
and understand.

You're running through the halls, don't know where to stop.
Does it feel like, it takes the pain away?
There's nothing left to do, nothing here for you so fall
by my side and say
"This can't... just can't be the end."

I won't wake up from this, so won't cha break your smile
and scream it's the end.

You cannot leave until I still breathe so stay here, and I will understand
