(she said no)
Pushing deeper in
Only the walls can see us
Bind my lips and hands
You know, I know
Throw my real self out
He's sitting next to me now
Long before you're through
I'm gone
When I wake up
I've cried enough
I run, I drift, I fall
A tear is falling from my eye
Closing up fully
Shut these feelings out
They get the best of me if
I can tell myself
It doesn't hurt at all
Every night we dance
The movement crushes me down
Long before you're through
I'm gone
Closing up fully, the stories over
That's called rape
And every night the dream's the same
And everynight you scream my name, closing up fully
