Hold they said
We got a man with no tie
Out they said
And shoved his colored ass away
What is wrong?
Down in the city you must pay it double to get things right
Wine tastes the same but smells a bit like dressed up shits of your type

So if you wanna get high
You gotta treat them nice
You gotta know the game before you cast the dice

Shine your shoes
This club could really get you laid
Smoke you fools
You know all the cool guys do it right?
Down in the city hold your breath cause they will charge it full
There's monsters out to get me trust me baby I aint no fool

So if you wanna get high
You gotta treat them nice
You gotta know the game before you cast the dice
And I you wanna girl
You gotta dress up right
Before they realise you re not that kinda guy

Oh nanana oh nana yeah what's the rush more ganja now faster
Hit me up bombita disaster
What's the rush now what's the rush? Answer

You re high
You wanna touch the sky
So high
You wanna touch the sky
