I, got a secret mission for tonight
The beast in me is not that willing to lie
Lets bring our secrets out outside into the light
I'm gonna take this to new heights
If your mind fails to grasp it all
If your world fails to move along
I wont deny it's
A way to fight
All the things you don't get
'Bout the beings around you

We have, we have, a
We have, we have, a
We have, we have, a
We have time till the middle of the night
We have, we have, a
We have, we have,
We have, we have, a
We have, we have another day
Till I go bad and missbehave
To the best of my interest
I'm not a dirty player
But lashing out could fix my day
And you just make me sick
He wants a kiss
She wants a man
Kinda hard to keep stability when facing high demand,
I think now
He wants to feast but sticks to the plan
Kinda hard to keep it cool when every victim tastes so bland, damn

We have, we have, a
We have, we have, a
We have, we have, a
We have, we have, a problem

We have, we have, a
We have, we have, a problem
We have, we have, a
We have, we have a problem
X2

You take away
My sense of calm
You take away
My sense of calm
Try not to get worked up by you
So called perception's fake reality burns
Yeah you take away
My sense of calm
You take away now, waaay now
And it's hard to remember
What I remember then
Gettin hard to remember when I lost my mind
I'm not gonna let you not gonna let you break inside
I will not let you break inside
