Midnight vision goggles on
In a darkened place a lot could go wrong
There's a touch electric in the air
Step aside big boys cause we ll go round round round round round
Yeah we go round round round round round

Tell me what you know
Big nights gonna start a local fire
Oh now no no no
Situation's starting to get dire
As we get loud loud loud loud loud

A pretty devil from a show? I don't know
You re so like it
And I like it
You got the looks from the books
But the story isn't clear
And the end it's so near
It's so god gamn near

The crowds getting thicker
It's harder to keep her
Right inside my central point of view
Keep movin now until you re through

The music is sucks so bad
They got no burbon this is sad
This last song is all I have Can't she stay still I'm going mad

As we get loud loud loud loud loud

A pretty devil from a show? I don't know
You re so like it
And I like it
You got the looks from the books
But the story isn't clear
And the end it's so near
It's so god gamn near

Hey I'm right in front of you

Can't you see in front of you?
Oooh what a night we'll go off with a scream
See the clouds are coming coming
Ooh what a knight he's nothing like you've dreamed
And the end is coming coming
Give us a toast baby
Tonight you'll burn? Maybe
Give us a toast baby
Tonight you'll toast
Give us a toast baby
Tonight you'll burn? Maybe
Look at the sky it comes crashing down upon you
My pretty baby you will burn burn burn
You won't like it, but I'll like it
You'll have those
Looks from the books
But the story won't be clear
And the end it's so near
Oh my god it's here
