Brave with such a strong deception
Better describes the moment you
Wasted your whole conception
I hate to admit it but I always knew

I'm writing you out of my recollection
It's better to fuck off there's no exceptions
Flatter yourself with every wrong direction

Enjoy today you're limited
You nest in investments that you've gambled away
I applaud this play you're living in
But soon the end will commence and nothing else
remains

Be for real
My we trust
You must feel
Fiction's lust

You are alone with your own autobiography
Erasing the facts replacing with acts of lame audacity
And yes I have a tolerance but I can't stand the smell
Of a self-syndicated asshole with bullshit to sell

Enjoy today you're limited
You nest in investments that you've gambled away
I applaud this play you're living in
But soon the end will commence and nothing else
remains

The root of your mind so insubordinate
The word of your score is just a metaphor supporting it
The truth in a lie signed when you start forging it
Like never before have I spoke such truth so warranted

You're scripted reality's a joke
Deep in that hole you dig within
I'm man enough to let it go
And watch the walls come caving in
