I Beg and plead upon the darkest horizon
Explode with this feeling of worthless grief
I'm stuck on this one way trip to nowhere
(Destination Nowhere)
Down the bottom of an endless universe

I'm paving along the same night skies and stars
Same night skies and stars)
It's infecting me of my shattered dreams

We're million years apart but I hope
You can hear my unspoken mind out loud
We're all alone trapped in the dead air space
And the earth gives no respond

I'd be lost in space
Drowning towards the satellites
I'm so far away from you
(Ten thousand feet above the stratosphere)
Don't leave me without your words
Don't wanna die in in absurd silence!

Can you hear me screaming?
As the silence grows around me
Can you hear me suffering?
As I'm gasping for a final breathe

Please Hold me close the darkness wraps me so tight
All the connection is lost
All the transmissions are dead
(They are broken and disconnected!)

I'd write your name in the brightest red for this such a long goodbye
If you hold me for a one last kiss

I'd be lost in space
Drowning towards the satellites
I'm so far away from you
(Ten thousand feet above the stratosphere)
Don't leave me without your words
Don't wanna die in in absurd silence!

My life slowly drowns the illness
But slowly it sets me free
Sucking me down
And pulling me out
To an interstellar ride

I'd be lost in space
Drowning towards the satellites
I'm so far away from you
Don't leave me without your words
(The second I explode away)
Don't wanna die in in absurd silence!
(I'm sinkin deeper with the stars)
Don't leave me without your words
(The second I explode away)
