"Cold War In The Sun"

Open your eyes
This world is so cold
Why did the war start?
Soldiers with loaded guns
Helpless bodies turn to bone
Do they even sleep at night?

Hearts are mislaid
As this Missile sinking through the ground
Love is misplaced
In this cold war in the sun

When they lay their heads down
Scars run deep inside
Anger, Hatred, embodies my mind

Hearts are mislaid
As this missile sinking through the ground
Love is misplaced
In this cold war in the sun

Lay the guns down
Helps create perfection
For future and failing
We are reawakening the hopes
