Don't haunt me anymore
Don't haunt my days and nights
Don't haunt me anymore
I want to be free of your love gripping me tight
Don't haunt me anymore
Don't follow where I walk
Don't eavesdrop on my heart, screaming silently inside
While my mouth pretends to talk

Don't haunt me anymore
Don't haunt the things I do
Don't haunt me anymore
I want to be free of the memory of you
Don't haunt me anymore
Don't wander through my rooms
Don't peek behind my eyes
And laugh at all the lies I wear to hide my wounds
Don't haunt me anymore

I want to sleep without dreaming
Let nothing in
Eyes that were crying are seeing
How to begin
How to begin...

Don't haunt me anymore
Don't haunt my days and nights
Don't haunt me anymore
I want to be free of your love gripping me tight
Don't haunt me anymore
Don't trace my footsteps home
I'll live the life I have
Not as crazy or as mad
But my soul will be my own

Don't haunt me anymore...
