"We"

We're born
We're crying
We fall
We're trying
We're little
We're laughing
We're lonely sometimes

We grow
We're open
We're lost
We're hoping
We're careful
We're calling
We're leaving behind
You say we need to work together
With love and care for everyone
Without the fighting and the anger
You say the world could be as one
But every time that you say we
Do you think about me?
'cause every time that you say we
I hope you think about me

We're strong
We're chosen
We're scared
We're frozen
We're hardened
We're hopeful
We're holding at bay
We take
We're giving
We shake
We're living
We're lovers
We're sinners
We're running away

And if we fail to make a difference
And if our hope is almost gone
Despite the fighting and the anger

You say the world could be as one

But every time that you say we
Do you think about me?
'cause every time that you say we
I hope you think about me

And every time that you say we
Do you think about me?
'cause every time that you say we
