Every moment we decide
What to open, what to hide
Every moment we decide
How to live our lives

Every moment we can learn
How to better understand
Who to follow, where to turn
How to find a friend

I'll wrap it with love
Every day and night
Wrap it up with love
Watch it fill with light
Wrap it up with love
Every way is right .

Wrap it up with love, love, love..

Every moment we grow old
Trust in no one, so were told
I won't live my life in fear
Rather disappear

Wrap it up with love
Every day and night
Wrap it up with love
Watch it fill with light
Wrap it up with love
Every way is right

Wrap it up with love, love, love..
