"Find Shelter"

Once valleys were homes
And the rivers are cradles
We build cup and bowl
Build windows and walls
And other solid things

Now rivers are snakes
And the valleys
They're cradles
They chase us behind
Windows and walls
And other solid things

Find shelter
Find shelter
Anywhere you can
Find shelter

Now

With dogs for our hands
And wolves for our feet
Our toes scratch at doors
Our fingers build walls
And other solid things

Find shelter
Find shelter
Find shelter
Anywhere you can
Find shelter
Find shelter
