My dark lord, take me away...
Parish among darkness, transcend into oblivion...
Ancient words enchanting, I must die....

Deep in the darkness,
Beneath the black Earth,
A valley of the forsaken,
Never forgotten,
Their immortal souls shall
Reign again.

Forever among my thoughts,
These demons
Call to me,
Pulling my senses,
Twisting my thoughts.

I feel their rage.
I know their hatred.

My dark lord, take me away...
Parish among darkness, transcend into oblivion...
Ancient words enchanting, I must die....

I call the forsaken ones, arise.
My flesh is yours to live,
My soul is yours to take.

Free your vengeance,
Take this Earth.
Live once again.
