Paralyzed by fear
As the vultures pick at my feet
And my skin is simply ripped off
In the blackness of the void
The merciless punishments of man
Are treated with nonchalance
They Come
They Come
For Me
Winged demons
They live their lives
Agony and bitterness
They come for me
With heartless, thirsty mouths
They Come
They Come
For Me
Rip at my face
Get them away
They come for me
In the darkness of the day
They Come
For Me
