Watching the hallucinated vision of the world You see the strongest army fighting for your sons Behind the mask of a shining lie you swallow them all We fell thats the right way but the battle is lost

See the real things Do you know where? Watch behind the screen Do you feel this hell?

I dont mind everyday which is the way I dont know what you say I know my name

Before you say another fuckin stupid word
[From:]
I see the death I see the pain I see the blood
Before you tell me thats the only way you know
I have to say I saw your sister on the road
Shes a whore

See the real things Do you know where? Watch behind the screen Do you feel this hell?

I dont mind everyday which is the way I dont know what you say I know my name
