So Sick (Girl Version)

Just a warning, in the last verse, a lot of the words overlap each other when she's singing the song

Ha ohhhhhh ahhhhh ohhh ooooo

Oh yeah

I gotta change the station that I had
Cause all I hear is you
It just keeps reminding me
Of all the things we used to do
And I know that I should turn off the radio
But it's the only place I hear your voice anymore

(It's ridiculous)
It's been months since I spoken to you
(You ain't keep in touch)
Don't know why it came to this
(But enough is enough)
No more walkin' round with my head down
I don't wanna be a fool
Crying over you

If you're so sick of love songs
So tired of tears
You say you love me
Why ain't you here?
I'm so sick of your love songs
So sad and slow
But I just can't turn off the radio

Gotta fix that calendar I have
That's marked July 16th
Cause it seems like you forgot
That it was our anniversary
When I heard your song it made it hard to erase your memory
Now when I hear your song, I know it's meant for me

I can't believe that you're so sick of love songs
So tired of tears
You say you love me
Why ain't you here?
I'm so sick of your love songs
So sad and slow
But I just can't turn off the radio

Ohhhh ohhh

(Now that I'm gone)
Now that I'm gone
(I wanna be left alone)
Ohhhh oohh
And every time I see your smile
It's looking at our child
You should know
Ohhh Why can't you move on?

If you're so sick of loves songs
So tired of tears
You say you love me
Why ain't you here?
I'm so sick of your love songs
So sad and slow
But I just can't turn off the radio
(I just can't turn off the radio)

If you're so sick of love songs
So tired of tears (So tired of tears)
You say you love me
Why ain't you here? (Why ain't you here?)
I'm so sick of your love songs
So sad and slow (oooo ohh)
But I just can't turn off the radio
(I just can't turn off the radio)

If you're so sick of love songs (If you're so sick of love songs)
So tired of tears (if you're so)
You say you love me (If you're so sick of love songs)
Why ain't you here?
I'm so sick of your love songs (I am so, I am so sick of love songs)
So sad and slow
But I just can't turn off the radio
(I just can't turn off the radio)
I just can't turn off the radio
