Sitting in a room waiting for some news

Sitting in a room with white knuckles

Not feeling so good

I didn't do the things I should

I said, "doc, tell me what's wrong with me"

He had this expression he didn't know what to say

"it seems that you've contracted a new strain."

How could this happen to me?

Another victim another casualty

From fucking casually, another casualty

All the times I should have worn a jimmy hat

All the times I said, "what the fuck,

I won't look back, that's not for me."

I wouldn't listen to reason

Now look at me
