When I look around I only see out at one eye The smoke surrounds my head, in the sauna I hear the voices but I cant make out the words

They're saying things, saying things that I Got something stickin' in my eye Got something stickin' in my eye Got something stickin' in my eye

I feel unusual from thinkin' Better be underground decay, God help me Kill beneath the camera, watch the world begin to cry Its not from pity

It comes from whats been stickin' in my eye Got something stickin' in my eye Got something stickin' in my eye Got something stickin' in my eye

Got something stickin' in Got something stickin' in Got something stickin' in my eye
